Below is just a taste of what's been happening over the Summer Term...

Roaring 20's Jamboree

On Friday 21 June, Year 12 students staged an Afternoon of Gin, Fizz, Fun & Canapés for over 50 Guests. All proceeds are going to Unicef and Demand. Having successfully raised over £400 from ticket and raffle ticket sales, and generous donations.

WOSCARS

On 4th July, Year 10 and 12 students organised, ran and attended our annual presentation evening known as The WOSCARS. The event was a great success, with students receiving a range of awards, such as Best Role Model and Best Collaborator, alongside subject awards

Daily Mirror

In May a team of students had an amazing experience as reporters for the Daily Mirror — Next Generation Edition highlighting On-Line Bullying. Students were involved in a array of newspaper experiences, from interviewing Prince William for the article, through to starting the printing presses!
